THE SENIOR CLASS

FREDONIA HIGH SCHOOL

FREDONIA, NEW YORK

VOLUME XX

Foreword . . .

Fredonia, the town we have come to love so dearly, has had a rich and varied history. The zeal for learning, the spirit of determination and progress, and the courageous sense of right that belonged to our forefathers have been passed on to us as a priceless heritage of schools, churches, and ideals. With a spirit of respect and gratitude, we seek to do our ancestry honor in the 1951 Hilltopper.

The Class of '51 will always cherish the memory of its four years at Fredonia High. During our stay "On the Hill," we have gained strength and vigor from our sports, and social power from our music, speech work, and clubs. The friendships and the fun we have had will not be forgotten.

Using these as tools to fashion out our lives, we enter a new era for us and a new half century for the world. May our accomplishments match those of our forefathers! In the years to come, the 1951 Hilltopper, with its memories and ideals, will refresh and encourage us.

1951 Hilltopper Dedication

We, the class of 1951, are proud to dedicate our Hilltopper to Miss Marcia Montfort whose charming personality and winning ways have helped to make our high school days both happy and profitable.

Miss Montfort's friendly smile and captivating enthusiasm are prevalent in whatever she undertakes. Her unselfish interests have won her the affectionate regard of the students and faculty.

It is our expressed desire that she meets with continued success in the future.

Senior Class Advisor

In his first year of teaching at Fredonia High School, Mr. Don Marquette has won both the admiration and the respect of the students.

As advisor of this yearbook and of the seniors who published it, Mr. Marquette willingly and generously gave of his time to assist the Class of 1951 in their many endeavors

Mr. Marquette will be remembered for his dynamic personality and pleasing smile. His interest in each student individually will long be cherished by those with whom he has come in contact.

The Class of '51 is gratefully appreciative of Mr. Marquette. As a group, we should like to wish him continued success and a prosperous future.

Highlights in

THE FIRST GAS WELL

A crude rock with a small metal plaque on it marks the place of the first gas well in the United States. Natural gas was first used in Fredonia in the early 1820's as a means of lighting in honor of General Lafayette's visit. This incident brought fame to Fredonia, and to the Abell house where it was first used.

THE BIRTHPLACE OF THE W. C. T. U.

In the Fredonia Baptist Church on December 15, 1873, 208 Crusaders, against what was called "the direct foe of their homes" met, organized, and became the first Women's Christian Temperance Union in the World.

THE GRANGE

Fredonia Grange, number 1, organized in 1868, appreciates the enviable honor of having been the first working subordinate grange in the United States. The Grange has always been looked upon as a tower of strength in the community and its organization and development has been very rapid so as to attract many to its membership. The Grange has proven to be one of Fredonia's most important historical points of interest.

LAFAYETTE'S VISIT TO FREDONIA

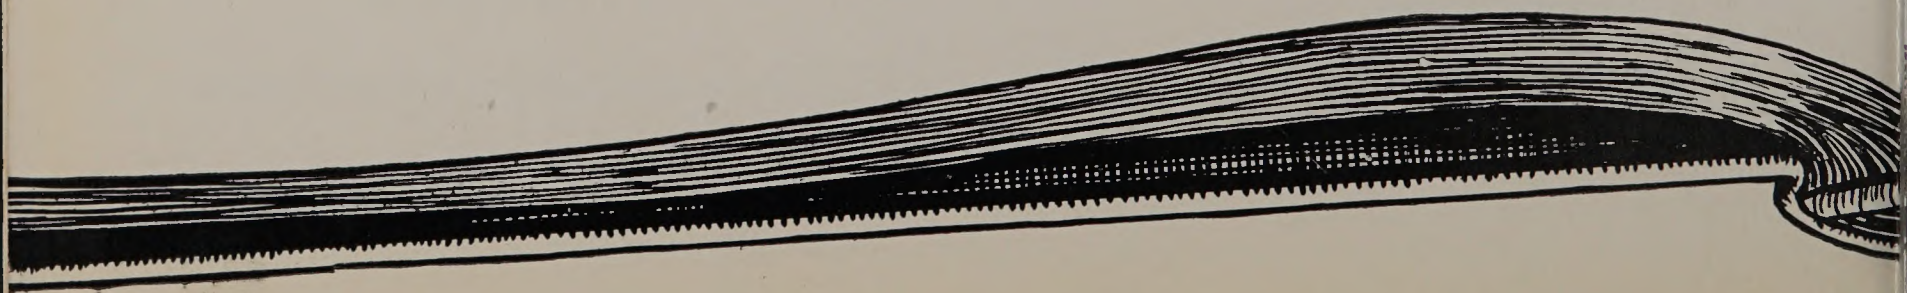

One of the most famous figures of historical importance to visit Fredonia was Lafayette. Preparations were made by the whole community to receive the distinguished Lafayette in a favorable manner. The event was indeed a gala one, with speeches, music, and military reviews.

It was, indeed, a great honor to have a man of such high esteem visit Fredonia, leaving behind him an occasion long to be remembered by the people then, and thus adding another chapter to our heritage.

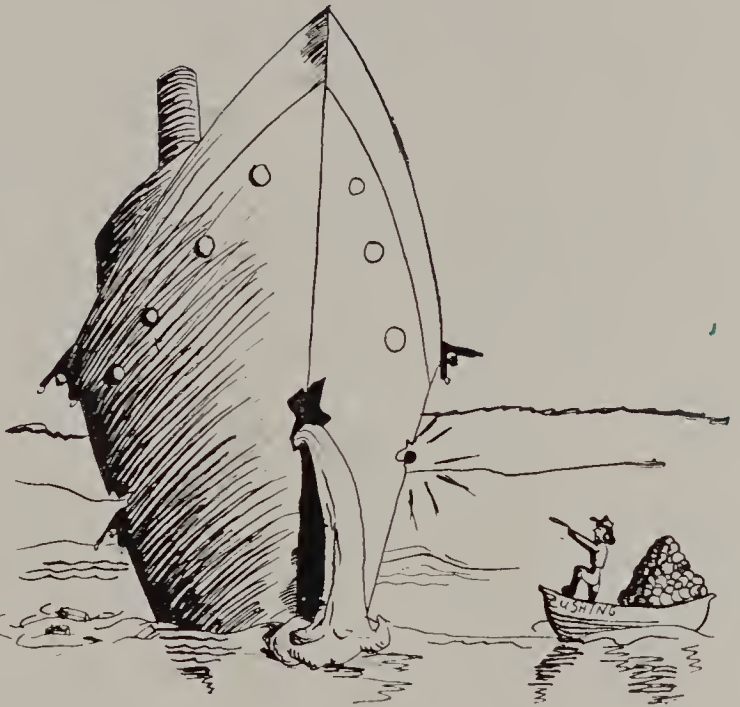

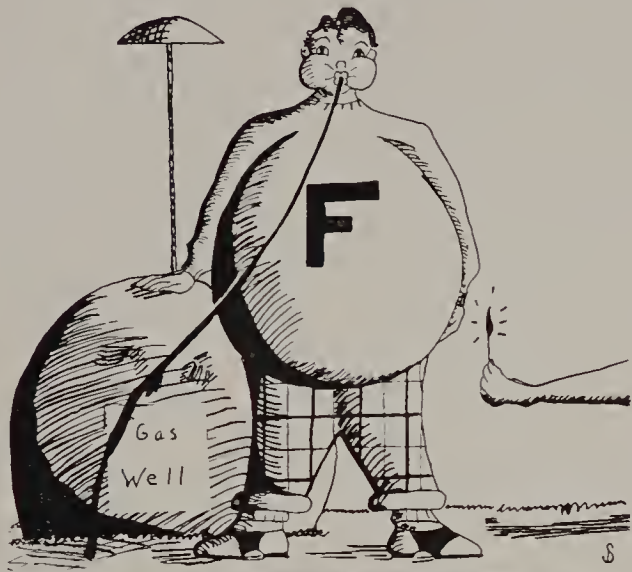

U. S. S. CUSHING II

Commander William B. Cushing, Civil War hero who engineered the destruction of the Confederate Albemarle, made his home in Fredonia.

Later, a new destroyer was named the "Cushing" in honor of our distinguished Fredonian.

Mr. Howard Bradley's guiding spirit has led us through our four years of high school.

During our four years at F. H. S., the Seniors of 1951 have come to realize the importance of our teachers. Without a well-trained, competent faculty, our broad field of education would be practically impossible. Not only are the teachers our guides in learning, but they have also taken on the added responsibility of seeing that all students are equipped with a sense of interest and high ideals as they go forth into an unsettled world, shaken with misunderstanding.

Their wise leadership, brought about by years of training and experience, has been the beacon which led us toward the greater things in life. Their efforts have added much to the best years of our lives. For this, and even more, we wish to extend our sincere and grateful thanks.

"The Divine Flora"

The Senior Play, "The Divine Flora," proved a great success. The humorous plot amused the audience, and held their interest throughout.

Etta Dean, alias "Little Prune Puss," was being "rushed" by "Randy" Pryor, who was determined to get into the advertising business with Etta's father. Several days later our heroine turned up at the Pryor's summer cottage dressed very stylishly. "Randy" and "Buzz" immediately changed her name from Etta to Flora. Then began the fun. Many complicated situations arose, but they were eventually overcome. The ending proved happy and hilarious.

The Senior Class wishes to extend their sincerest appreciation to Mrs. Eloise Heyl, Dramatics Instructor, for without her excellent supervision and direction our play would not have been possible.

Fredonia High School is proud to have a chapter of the National Honor Society. The purpose of this organization is to promote high ideals of character, scholarship, leadership and service.

In the month of February ten per cent of the senior class and five per cent of the junior class are chosen by the faculty to be initiated by older members. The initiation consists of a traditional "tapping" ceremony.

The National Honor Society is a goal which all underclassmen strive to attain. The honor and high standards that this organization maintains should be a challenge to all students.

Looking back on our eight years of school, we all agree that our teachers have done an excellent job of preparing us for our high school days.

It has been a pleasure to spend two of these years in the Junior High department up on the hill. The many opportunities that we have had, the parties, the friends—all have added much to our lives.

In addition to our regular school work, we have had the opportunity of studying music, art, homemaking, and shop, under the direction of high school instructors.

It is with great anticipation that we await the four years to come. We extend to the teachers our grateful appreciation for their untiring efforts.

Although this has been our first year in the Junior High department on the hill, we have acquired much, not only in the art of learning, but also in the field of society.

Our teachers, who we shall again have next year, have shown us the right side of all matters. We have been fortunate in having the opportunity to take art, homemaking, music, and shop along with our regularly scheduled subjects. Our many class activities have been great successes. All new students have felt at home because of the friendly atmosphere which exists in our school.

We believe that next year our days on the hill will prove even more profitable, because of the relentless efforts of our teachers.

Memories . . .

That beautiful June evening, the first orchid, the swish of taffeta and net, the delicate touch of romance—all were part of our own Senior Prom. The air was filled with excitement, the music was soft and dreamy. As the young ladies passed by in their stylish array, a faint scent of perfume filled the air. Never had a Senior Prom been so successful.

As the couples moved about the dance floor, many memories were recalled. The four years that had elapsed since we were freshmen had gone by all too quickly. Pleasant recollections of the joyful days we had experienced brought with them momentary sadness, for we realized our high school days were ending.

As the music of the last dance faded into the starry night, one more chapter was added to our book of memories.

"Nothing now is left but Majestic Memory."

CLASS of 1951

Fredonia High School

Our compliments on your well-earned achievement — graduation! May you always treasure your memories of these past four years of effort, of pleasant associations, of happy events.

We hope most of you will find it possible to go on to schools of higher learning. To you and those who are soon to join that vast legion of bread-winners, we extend our hope for a bright future.

You're a great class . . . and if each of you set your sights high enough and work hard enough, success will be yours!

*On the way to that goal . . . make it a point to stop
